WASHINGTON COUNTY ACCESS PROGRAM

CONSUMER GUIDELINES FOR APPLICANTS

The Redevelopment Authority of the County of Washington (RACW) has established the Washington County Access Program to assist low and moderate income residents with permanent, physical disabilities increased accessibility in their current homes.

The following information describes the mechanics of the Program and the procedures that must be followed to apply for and receive assistance under this Program.

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS PROGRAM?

The purpose of this Program is to provide permanently, physically disabled residents increased accessibility in their homes. Modifying the home will prevent institutionalization and enable persons with disabilities to remain in their community setting.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO APPLY FOR THIS PROGRAM?

Low and moderate income homeowners and tenants with permanent, physical disabilities residing in Washington County who need physical modifications to their homes may apply for this program.

WHAT ARE THE INCOME LIMITS?

Household Size	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Low Income 50% of Median	$25,450	$29,050	$32,700	$36,300	$39,250	$42,150	$45,050	$47,950
Moderate Income 80 % of Median	$40,700	$46,500	$52,300	$58,100	$62,750	$67,400	$72,050	$76,600

Note: Income limits are subject to change.

ARE THERE OTHER REQUIREMENTS?

All of the property owners must sign documents approving the modifications/repairs. All property taxes must be current and there cannot be federal, state, or municipal liens on the property. Owner occupants must carry homeowners insurance with RACW named as a mortgagor. Rental property owners must sign an agreement not to increase the rent, based on the modifications/repairs, for a period of eighteen months. Also, the property must be in reasonably good condition (i.e. at a minimum structurally sound and habitable) and affordable per federal guidelines. Affordable is defined as having an after rehabilitation value that does not

In addition, processing fees will be charged to defray the administrative costs associated with the review of gas and oil leases and subordination documents.

Loans for Access Modifications will be secured with a mortgage which will be forgiven over a 5 year period at a rate of 20% if you continue to own and occupy the property. Loans for obvious code deficiencies will be secured with a mortgage which will be forgiven over a 10 year period at a rate of 10% if you continue to own and occupy the property.

IS THERE A MAXIMUM AMOUNT OF MONEY THAT I CAN RECEIVE?

There is a $15,000 cap on both the access funds and the code repair loan funds. If the cost of modifications exceeds $15,000, you will have to provide the additional funds or reduce the amount of work to be done. If the code repairs exceed $15,000 you will have to provide the additional funds. If you cannot provide the additional funds for a code repair loan, we will not be able to provide any assistance (access modifications or code repairs). Note: All funds in excess of $15,000 must be placed in an escrow account at the time of the closing. However, in no instance will a contract for modifications or code repairs exceed $24,999. Contracts of $25,000 or more require compliance with the Department of Labor and Industry's Prevailing Wage.

WHO SELECTS THE CONTRACTOR/VENDOR?

The applicant and/or property owner will be responsible for selecting the contractor/vendor. The applicant/property owner will distribute copies of the work specifications for bid proposals, prepared by RACW, to qualified contractors/vendors of his/her choice. All residents will be required to solicit a minimum of three bids. RACW will pay the amount of the low bid. If the applicant/property owner prefers the more expensive contractor/vendor, they must pay the difference between the three bids. RACW does not guarantee the work or materials provided by any contractor/vendor. RACW is merely a funding source and facilitator of the program.

WHEN CAN THE WORK BEGIN?

Once a contractor has been chosen and the final scope and costs are agreed upon, a loan closing and preconstruction conference will be scheduled. This important meeting gives the owner, contractor, and RACW staff the opportunity to examine the final work specifications and the time schedule. When this is completed, a contract between the owner and the contractor/vendor will be executed and all other closing documents will be signed. The contractor/vendor will not begin the work until the owner issues a Proceed Order directing him/her to do so.

HOW DO I APPLY FOR ASSISTANCE?

Pre-applications may be obtained at the RACW office at, 100 West Beau Street, Suite 603, Washington, PA, by mail by calling RACW at 724-228-6875, or downloaded from our website at www.racw.net.
